

Sermon Discussion Questions | September 24, 2017 2 Corinthians 5 | “Connected in Reconciliation” Pastor Clay Smith

1. What was new or challenging in this message?
2. Reconciliation is a restored relationship with God that promises more to come in the future. In that sense, it is like the crocus flower, a herald of more life to come. If someone were to view your life today as a foretaste of something more to come in the future, what could that assume about the future based on what they experience from your life today?
3. What happens to your sense of guilt or burden when reflecting on the truth that all your sin was laid on Jesus, and all his righteousness has been credited to you? Why or why not does this change how your view yourself?
4. Where is freedom from sin and selfishness a challenge for you? How can we come alongside?
5. What place is the Lord deploying you right now as his ambassador?
