1. Have you ever experienced a time when your perception of something about yourself was not accurate but later came to find out the reality? How did that happen? What was it like for you to go through that process?
2. What is the main problem of this church (verses 1--2)? Why is this issue so dangerous for us?
3. What are some of the symptoms of this problem? How can we look at our own lives to see if this might be true of us?
4. What is the solution Jesus prescribes (verse 2--3)? What does this mean in practice?
5. How is Jesus described at the beginning of the letter? How does this description relate to this church's problem, and how does it point them, and us, toward the power we need to address it?
